SCOPE AND CONTENT STATEMENT

The collection consists of session and congregational minutes, church registers, a dismission book, and legal documents.

BIOGRAPHICAL STATEMENT

The church was initially called the Bethesda church of Rush Co., but later the current name was chosen. The church was organized in 1838. Milroy is located in Rush county, Indiana which is in the central eastern part of the state.

PROVENANCE

Since Hanover College's roots are in Presbyterianism, many records throughout Indiana have been donated at various times to the Presbyterian Archives of Hanover College.

RESTRICTIONS AND PERMISSIONS

The records of the Presbyterian Archives are on deposit at Hanover College and according to the Book of Order (G-9.0406), Hanover College may only hold official records on deposit. All ownership rights to the records remain with the creators of the records (the local church), or in the case the church no longer exists, the presbytery owns the records or the successive church body.

Materials from the collection may be copied based on the policies and costs determined by the archives. Permission to publish whole documents from the collection, or publication of these materials on the Internet, or any electronic environment, requires a written proposal and permission by the owner of the records.

COPYRIGHT, PUBLIC DOMAIN, AND FAIR USE

Please read the archives' policy on copyright and fair use, which can be obtained by the archivist in charge of the reading room.
