SCOPE AND CONTENT STATEMENT

The collection contains pamphlets related to Hanover College from the 19th Century. Included in the collection are general pamphlets, and addressed given to the following societies: Alumni, Philosophronean, Philalethean, and Union Literary. The addresses usually coincided with the annual meetings or graduations of these groups.

PROVENANCE

This is an artificial collection. Though many of the pamphlets have common provenance, this collection has brought together all the pamphlet which are not directly associated to another collection in the archives. This collection may be expanded if other pamphlets are given to the library and are not connected to another collection

RESTRICTIONS AND PERMISSIONS

Materials from the collection may be copied based on the policies and costs determined by the archives. Permission to publish whole documents from the collection, or publication of these materials on the Internet, or any electronic environment, requires a written proposal approved by the archivist of Hanover College.

COPYRIGHT, PUBLIC DOMAIN, AND FAIR USE

These pamphlets have entered the public domain. Please read the archives' policy on copyright and fair use, which can be obtained by the archivist in charge of the reading room.
